I asked a question soon after Alan's demise,
Never managed to get a reply.
How did Alan die,
Funeral arrangements etc.
Who is this fraudster called mellisa formerly bev
How come she has control of his website
How come she is burying Alan's work without anyone even commenting let alone challenging.

Colin Flynn

She was never his wife, his neighbours had no idea who she was either.
She is also still married to her previous husband.

Colin Flynn

Alan Watt was not married to this woman.

She is still married to her previous husband, but living in her family home as inherited from her father.

Alan's neighbors have never seen this woman, and she has absolutely zero evidence, is phone bills, car insurance etc to prove she ever lived with Alan Watt!!

i listened to lots of alan watt audio over past few years , some of what he said was exaggerated in my opinion , and he did change what he said sometimes , like at the beginning of covid he believed it then he quickly changed and said it wasnt real or they were exaggerating it , overall his world view was very true in many ways , i take what i see makes sense from watt , he made money from this , he constantly repeated in his audio , the whole send me a few bucks to keep me ticking along thing was sy op in itself , free downloads but send poor old me some buckeroones to help me shovel the snow in minus 20 conditions all year round , he exaggerated in my opinion but some information was good , saying that there is a man on net called mark windows / windows on the world , his stuff is free but just wants small donations to help him tick along , small donations from hundreds of thousands of people is big bucks , its a racket , money controls all , even these , its a that mellissa is a good talker cant shut up sounds like sharon osbourne ffs , always silent when watt was alive , now a pro ,

Nemo Octavius

Melissa and Weston are good at saying very little and keeping things nice and vague while seeming to say a whole bunch. I think what I originally thought -- and was ridiculed by some here in the group for stating -- is probably correct: Watt is not what he seemed. My guess is he was probably involved with an Intelligence agency at some point and was assigned to be a gatekeeper of sorts.

His own widow cannot tell his listeners anything substantive about him that can be verified. I would doubt if Watt was even his real name, and I think I know why he chose it. I read something online when I was researching Watt after he 'died' -- that his LLC earned roughly four hundred thousand dollars in one year. Now, that could be wrong, but if it's true does this 'working class hero' nonsense sound realistic?

Look, just use your mind. Would Watt be allowed to release the kind of commentary he did AND become a popular alternative truth icon in the process? He appeared on the Alex Jones show, and we all know now Jones is a gatekeeper. He also appeared with Thomas Sheridan, and we all know he is a shill. He actually bitches about the Jab but insists NASA isn't lying about anything. 🤔

Obviously, this is the revelation of the method. They are LETTING you know what the real deal is, by letting these operatives release this kind of 'occult' information. Watt kept it more real than most, but the point is: do not make a cult of personality out of the guy. You never met him. You only know what you were told. Don't make a guru out of ANYONE.

Nemo Octavius

Paul, you're the same one who is always bringing up Melissa, aren't you? Nobody cares about Melissa except people who are worshipping Watt as a guru instead of running with the info and building on it. Why don't you just bomb her with all of your fake outrage? Nobody cares here.

Nemo Octavius

It's been discussed in the group for years. Nobody has ever heard Watt mention a wife. Melissa claims it was to protect her, yet she outed herself after his death. Does that seem logical?

Ultimately, she's irrelevant. Watt was probably a limited hangout, possibly from British SIS . . . it is extremely implausible he would make a profitable career out of exposing the dominant minority. This isn't a DC comics movie. Watt wasn't Batman. Plus, he made grandiose statements like being invited to attend meetings of the dominant minority, which he supposedly declined . . . sounds extremely unlikely to me.

The Intelligence community is responsible for most, if not all, of the alternative truth movement 'stars' like David Icke, Michael Tsarion, Alex Jones, Watt, Thomas Sheridan, et cetera.

If they are making a career out of supposedly 'exposing' the truth, have a religious or political agenda, they are limited hangouts.

Elizabeth Kerr hello

I was friends with Melissa for 4 years. I have come to realize she is a fraud. She told me of the legal battle with you over Alan's estate. I thought you should be aware that she is recreating his book, changing it just enough to trademark/copywrite in her name.

Diana Warlyndi Diana thanks so much for the info about that woman. Before his death Alan had not mentioned her. She misappropriated all his worldly goods including the assets of his business. Of which she is still receiving an income. Could you tell me when you met her? I'm keen to find out more because she has told a lot of lies about us. I really would like to hear from you. Thanks again

I do have some questions for you about Alan, if you are comfortable talking about it.

Melissa told me that he was Special Forces UK at 16 years old.

Also that he worked in the psychiatric industry, with patients, from 18-20 years old approximately.

Can you confirm?

Also that he worked in the music industry as a singer, song writer with some of the most well know bands at the time?

I'm also curious, was Alan Watt his real name?

Sorry so much. I just can't believe anything that came out of her mouth now.

She used me and abused me for 4 years. It is my mission to expose everything I know about her. She shared a lot, I did not ask, she offered. I just want to confirm these things, or was she lying to me.

Seeing that you are affiliated with AW's family members it reinforces my overall standpoint, in regards to them "NOT" being suitable at looking after his site... i mean, let's face it, you are their associate, right😏. I'd rather trust AW's judgment over theirs any day of the week.

They've got a fraggle, like (yourself) working alongside them to demonise someone who AW left in charge.

Now, that someone, has done interviews with people who knew AW on a personally level... what has his family done in regards to anything related to AW? 0%.

Well, they obviously have a complete and utter (knucklehead) aiding them... god help them.

I can categorically say that Steven Owen is unknown to Alan's family outside this group. We'd like to tell you that Alan's rightful heirs are his two sisters, and they are suitable to look after his legacy. Who better than his blood relatives. I told you personally some time ago that there were legal proceedings and that in the fullness of time, Alan's family will tell the whole tale, truthfully. We did not want to comment publicly before having all legal actions completed in Canada, but we can confirm that it has been established by the courts that Alan's sisters are his joint heirs. Hi David. As you and everyone who knows anything about Alan will know, he and his family are very private people. Also, it would be wrong for me to comment on an ongoing court case. However, I can say that transparency can only be judged if you know fully that everything you see is all that there is to be seen. As soon as the case is finalised, we will let people know what the truth is.

Frank Kerr Steve's list of FB friends did have you listed... all I'm saying is, should you be associated to (degenerates) such as himself, it'll only harm your credibility in the long run, in regards to the calibre of that specific individual.

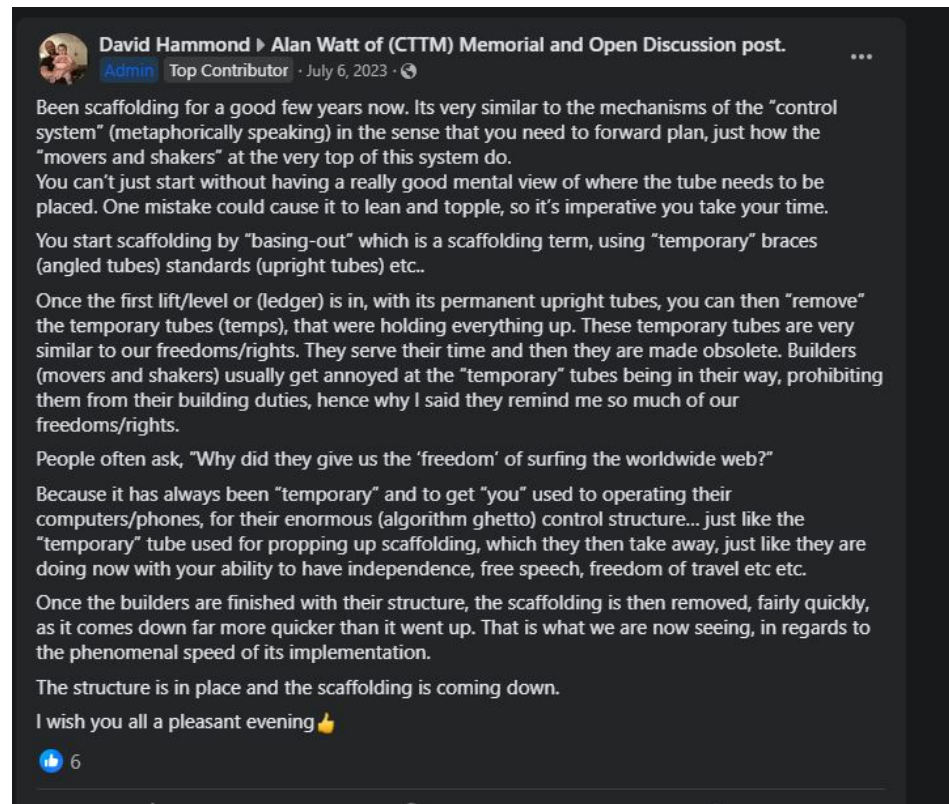

Alan's listeners do not know his family... nobody has come forward publicly.
Melissa (if that's her name has.)
Maybe if you were to engage with his listeners it may help to shine some light, yet Melissa appears to be very transparent in the many interviews she's conducted. She has even done a few with personal friends of Alan's, so to say she is an imposter is a bone face lie.

Everything happening behind the scenes is private. I respect that, but like I said to you before, people on this hub are switched-on. We all still have many questions and we won't be fooled by people coming in and throwing their weight around.

This memorial hub is my own creation out of the respect I have for AW, and I will remain neutral, as I believe AW would have been prepared.
AW's site, talks, material etc are still accessible, so that's all that matters to me to be fair.

There's no hate within this hub, because there's far too much hatred out there, to be honest, however, hopefully you'll learn something new here, to help change your dreadful ways.

You thought you was going to come in here and divide folk... yet it has been the total opposite. Why did you switch off your friends list? What do you have to hide?

 You talk like you are dating this Mellisa formally bev and formally Helen Yes people can make up their own mind is she preserving Alan great work,
 Or burying it, painting over the top and then pushing it in to a corner.
 Anyone with the modicum of intelligence would have the sense to see this reeks of a takeover of his sight,
 When you isolate the spoons from the rest of the Cutlery you don't grab the knives and a soup ladle
 Just the same rule applies for preserving
 Preserving someone's work you don't paint over the top of it or hang other paintings over the top as you don't produce thousands of works of nonsense sprinkle some of Alan's work in between you don't then bury it in a sea of content.

 You see David, it's incredible how the sheep are not capable of working anything out for themselves.
 But in this one occasion I shall indulge you. please refrain from taking offence it is a tad tedious.
 Funny thing is there are far too many options as to cover them all.
 But we must firstly understand who should not be in charge of Alan's website containing his work, and that is the person who has managed to water down dilute bury misrepresent Alan's work.
 You see just like any great work it does not require any remastering, adjusting, altering

Write an answer

Not married.
And relied on occasion neighbours in extreme circumstances.
If you can't see or won't see what has happened to Alan's work since his untimely demise then just like the sheep who just keep grazing , never stopping to consider life and what is going on on this earth.
I can't be of any assistance.
My time visiting this site is done.
Don't you think his death and just how no one knows what happened the details , don't you think that's strange?
I meet people everyday who carry water for the globalists , make excuses for them,
On this site I have witnessed mostly that.
Never an inquisitive mind, just always feeling attacked defending their position.
To investigate, even interrogate, you must think critically, evaluate, carry out careful analysis, Reason .
Ask the questions, when I did ask questions I was met with was stupid cheap negative remarks.
Never a meaningful discussion,
Just people defending their position, feeling attacked.
No critical thinking, no brainstorming , no doing their own due diligence, just acceptance, and acquiescing,
No talk about his real family, death certificates, funerals,
It does seem no one really cares just much virtue signalling going on,
I understood I would either get someone privately contacting me, with information, or at least how they have also been bemused, confused how they were also shut out of Alan's situation.
Who were close to him.
But preserving work is not spraying graffiti over a painting, or taking it down sticking it in a corner difficult to find.
But some people just argue black is white.
Just object and disagree , its just their nature.
Cheap remarks, I appreciated the life's work of Alan,
Yes I have moved on to more information, I think it's a shame Alan would be amazed at the new evidence that has surfaced, just how we were all deceived.

yes I have moved on to more information, I think it's a shame Alan would be amazed at the new evidence that has surfaced, just how we were all deceived. Anyway, I doubt this will resonate with many here but one never knows. There are other great people out there exposing the globalists agenda.

Dr tom cowan
Sam bailey
Andrew kaufman
Stefan Lanka's work and controlled studies

The Perth group etc
That is however just a few subjects , unlike Alan who exposed the whole Agenda
But he helped those above.
Some are destined to remain serfs, slaves.
Nothing one can do.
Taking a good look at yourself is very hard to do.
I built my reality of this earth from scratch
It takes decades of hard work and effort having no ego,
No agenda
Having the ability to understand we will never understand and have the answers to everything.

🔒 Steven Owen you said his family should have "full control" of his website etc, so you are implying that he did indeed die.

I've already worked it out, I don't need anyone... you are FB friends with Alan's family. I won't mention their names, but one of them did indeed contact me a while back (it may of well been bogus) however I find it very peculiar that you are FB friends with that specific person.

See I do look at every angle. Alan apparently has a sister whom I believe is a member of this group also. I'm not going to mention any names as I do not want to judge. I hold zero animosity, because I'm "not" affiliated to neither them or Mellisa.

Alan Watt of (CTTM) Memorial and Open Discussion post.

June 30, 2023

Be your own Hero.

This one goes out to those who are still stuck on the whole "what happened to Alan, and who's running his site etc". topic.

Alan was an extremely intelligent man, no doubt about it. He could literally recite paragraphs/pages from books he had read in the past, with absolute ease, so to suggest that he wasn't capable of preserving his own work (should the inevitable happen) is somewhat disrespectful in itself.

Melissa (if that's her real name) has done some great talks, especially sifting through and presenting those that relate to present day, goings-on.

AW came across as a very private/simplistic man who relied on his outdated website to promote/sell his material. The site itself was very standard in comparison to other researchers, however it worked for him and me, because it's easy to use, down to it being straightforward and free from those annoying advertisements, that you find elsewhere... he was as independent as they come.

He was a maverick, yet I'd also say that he must have had some help in the background, in terms of dispatching his material, emails etc, because let's face it, it wouldn't have been plain sailing for him.

He dedicated his entire life to preserve what many of us take for granted "privacy". There's a hell of a lot of people out there, who grew to look up to AW, as some kind of public figure/hero, who had a duty to disclose absolutely everything about himself... but that's not what AW was about, and for those of you who can comprehend what I'm saying, I know you'll see what I'm getting at here.

Why would he introduce his wife on the radio, when all he ever warned us about was the erosion of privacy... his home life was something he obviously cherished. Perhaps he wanted to protect her from the "big boys" and the loony folk, who obsess over people in the public eye, like himself.

People tend to entrench themselves into the lives of whomever they follow and at times run away with themselves, believing all sorts of madness that they've read in forums... now I'm by no means saying that my perception here is correct, I'm just going on AW's character that he would at times present to his listeners, and my very own intuition.

There are obviously those who only ever "heard" AW speak. However, there are those of us who "listened"... perhaps it would be a good idea to listen, it could take another ten years (years we no longer have)... then again if you're a narcissist, you will not listen to the advice anyway.... so I'm pretty much wasting my time. I wish you all a splendid day 🙌

Lorna Flynn I did indeed say I could be incorrect... however, it doesn't matter, because there is far bigger things occurring worldwide, like the depopulation program and that never ending stranglehold that's tightening up its grasp day by day. I cannot take a documentary team to Canada to investigate anything related to Alan... damn I can't even afford a trip to Southend.

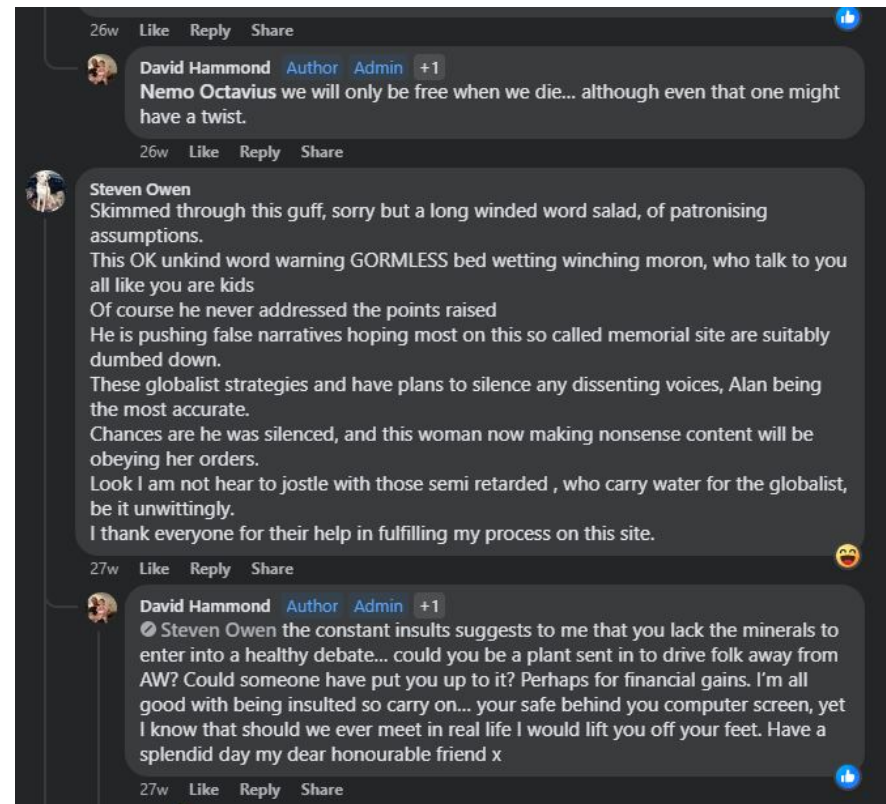

This hub serves as a base for those who want to discuss these topics, yet because mine may alter from others I shouldn't be frowned upon like I'm a shill, whose primary aim is to deceive and bury Alan's work, like a certain someone is suggesting in their perpetual submitted posts.

Should people want to reach out and discuss these subject matters then all I'm saying is for them to put their ego aside and enter into healthy debate, rather than calling everyone a sheep/shill and themselves an oracle.

Could someone have put you up to it? Perhaps for financial gains. A recurring theme of AW's work is the utter failure of the hero worship mentality. We are our own heroes. We can all play the hero role for others at times, and others can play that role for us as well, but when it comes to 'waking up' to the mind numbing, jaw dropping, fictional reality that is the Matrix, you can lead a horse to water, but you can't make it drink.

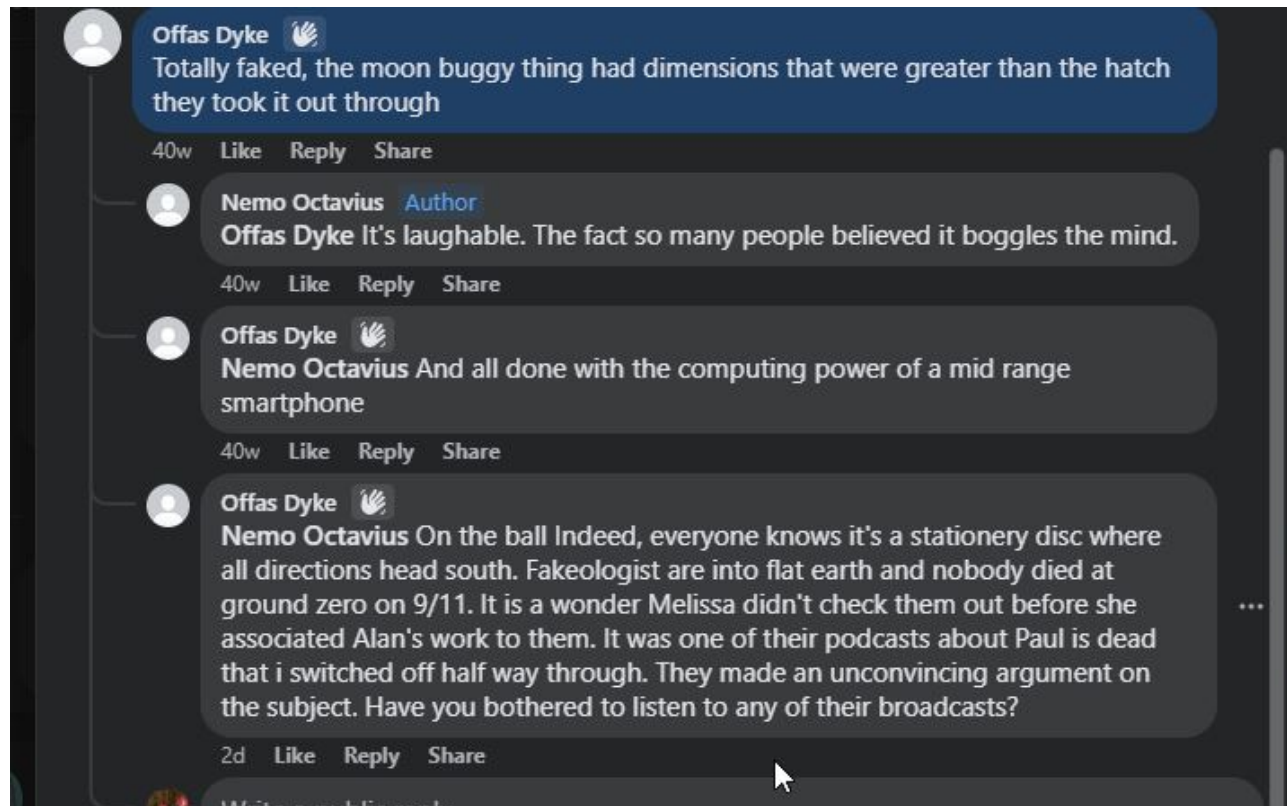

Of course, one can 'wake up' to the fact that they are a slave, mentally, but becoming free is quite a different story. Most anesthetize themselves to their chains.

Watt's information, and his engaging manner and dystopian sense of humor -- which made the horrors of which he spoke more easily understood and palatable -- have contributed to freeing a number of individual human minds from the time-tested and incredibly pervasive and immensely successful brainwashing techniques of a technocratic elite. The majority of the population are brainwashed to such an extent that, perversely, they believe they are free when all evidence clearly points to the contrary.

Watt's personal story may be interesting, but it is his life's work -- his amazing 'talks' -- that are his legacy. The material is conducive to opening doors, mentally, that for most, are hammered shut. His personal brand of TNT has blown the door open in many a mind. I really don't care who he was, personally. His private life is none of my business. The mystery of Melissa and her detractors is boring and irrelevant to anything Watt said. Was Watt murdered? Who knows? Seems odd that the so-called elite would let

The post content reads: "facebook has a notification called (potential spam) which categorise posts to be submitted manually. I've only just stumbled upon it. So if you've shared stuff in the past I do apologise as I was unaware of it. I've posted that what was pending and will try to keep a tab 🙌". Below the post, there are two comments. The first comment is from George Gillies, dated 25w, and says: "Yeah so how does it feel to be a gatekeeper David Hammond? Is power really so addictive? Even a little of it.. I have myself been a, erm, victim of the above indirect censorship on this here group and to be honest it made me think twice about remaining here. Facebook is clearly becoming the Thought Police and the only way it seems you can keep them out your thoughts is by not SAYING anything... How Ironic, I'm sure you'll agree David.. and pray tell: what does Fascist Book deem as suspected spam? and further what are your own 'filtering' methods? You must have some, you are a Herr Commandant after all! 😊". The second comment is from David Hammond, dated 25w, and says: "I've been labelled a gatekeeper for soo long on here, that it made me want to give it a go in real time. Power hey. It's a funny one, because that urge for power lays in us all, to some extent. Remember the guy who claimed Boris Johnson was really Matt Lucas? He was spamming the group with unadulterated BS. He wanted power... for only he himself was the one and only authority over truth, and everyone else was either a sheep or a shill. 🙌". Nobody in this group, as far as I know, had a personal relationship with Watt. He is an enigma. Personally, I am highly suspicious of many things about the whole situation, but what can one do? What remains is his life's work. Either you resonate with it or you don't.

Your precious group, accomplishing nothing,
The name of this group is misleading and deceptive.
This is actually got nothing to do with Alan as when you bring him up in a meaningful way, people like you the pathetic sheep mentality, but want to occasionally do the role of sheep dog, shout down discussion, debate, enquiries, and trying to get closer to the truth.
Yes I am no group person just an individual who can critically think, who evaluates, who carrying out careful analysis, reasons , rationalises, research , and investigate.
While people like you decend to name call8ng, self apointing them selves as spoke person, assuming everyone on here are of the same mentality, and are pleased you speak for them.
Your goal is to distract from the real reason some visited this site, Alan Watt. First debate and discussion should be about Alan what happened to him why is some crazy woman managed to hoodwink so many on this group in to compliance with you.
Alan would have been bitterly disappointed,
So many here are still brainwashed programmed, indoctrinated, conditioned, to the point of mind controlled.

David Hammond Winter Silence just made themselves sound silly by equating the value of knowing a boot size to something like a full legal name and a date of birth which can be verified with independent sources. Please don't tell me you agree with Winter Silence, because any intelligent person knows the comparison is absurd.

I honestly don't care if Watt was a deep state gatekeeper or not. Watt didn't wake me up, I was already hip to the game years before I discovered Watt. I admired the fact he kept the bullshit to a minimum, but I understand these alternative media truth icons are Intelligence operatives/assets. How could they not be?

You go try achieving a career trashing the dominant minority and revealing occult truths to the sheep and see if you get to earn four hundred thousand dollars a year and celebrity status in the 'truth' community.

Again, I could be wrong. Watt could be as organic as they come. But I think it is far more likely that these alternative media types who are revealing the information Icke, Jones and Watt do are contributing to the Revelation of the Method.

David Hammond You can believe whatever you choose. And obviously if I were trying to be deceptive regarding my identity, I would have picked a normal sounding name, like David Hammond, rather than the one I chose.

If you stopped and thought about it, what I am saying makes perfect sense. This doesn't mean a lot of the information Alan gave us was inaccurate. A lot of the information Icke and Jones give us is accurate as well. Remember the COINTEL recipe: ninety percent truth, ten percent bullshit.

And I fully admit I could be wrong. I am not saying I have an inside scoop to the truth. I'm just giving an opinion.

Nemo Octavius Was Alan an agent? Or was he a grass-root independent researcher?

He was a mysterious chap I'll give you that, however he did value his privacy. Everyone is entitled to there own opinion and we could probably go on about it until the cows come home.

This group doesn't exist to make a guru out of Alan, that was never my intention. I think we've had this conversation before my honourable friend.

As for my name being David hammond that was my mother and fathers idea.

Thomas Sheridan's on the other hand and his opinions of nasa being 100% real is his own opinion also. Although, It doesn't correlate to my view of nasa. Is he a shill, who knows? Not really bothered to be fair.

There's far more serious stuff going down worldwide.

I find that whenever the Zionists are mentioned, people automatically swerve the topic, even though the connection is soo damn obvious. It would be foolish to ignore, especially when you juggle information like we do.

The Israeli expansion throughout the years, especially 9-11 hasn't gone unnoticed by me. The green light they have had in regards to murdering men women and children in Palestine, thieving land etc is extraordinary. Total media black-out here in the divided nation of Zionist Great Britain.

So too is the atrocities in Yemen, etc etc. all carried out by the same ilk, with the helping hand of the Zionist secret society's, ideological philosophies.

Every cretin that I see pushing the agenda always appears to be from, or associated with (gods chosen people).

Zelensky, putin , Biden, Schwab, gates, Yuval harari, truss, trump etc etc all marinating into one big Zionist shit pot.

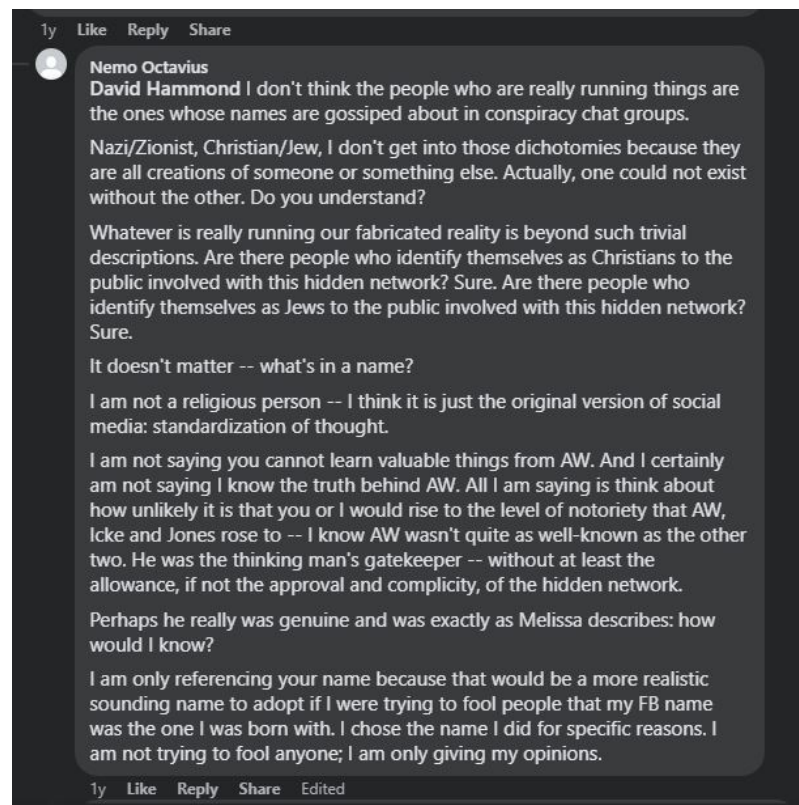

Nobody wants to stare at the obvious though, out of fear of being labelled a nazi. Hollywood has done a magnificent job on socially engineering the people... damn.

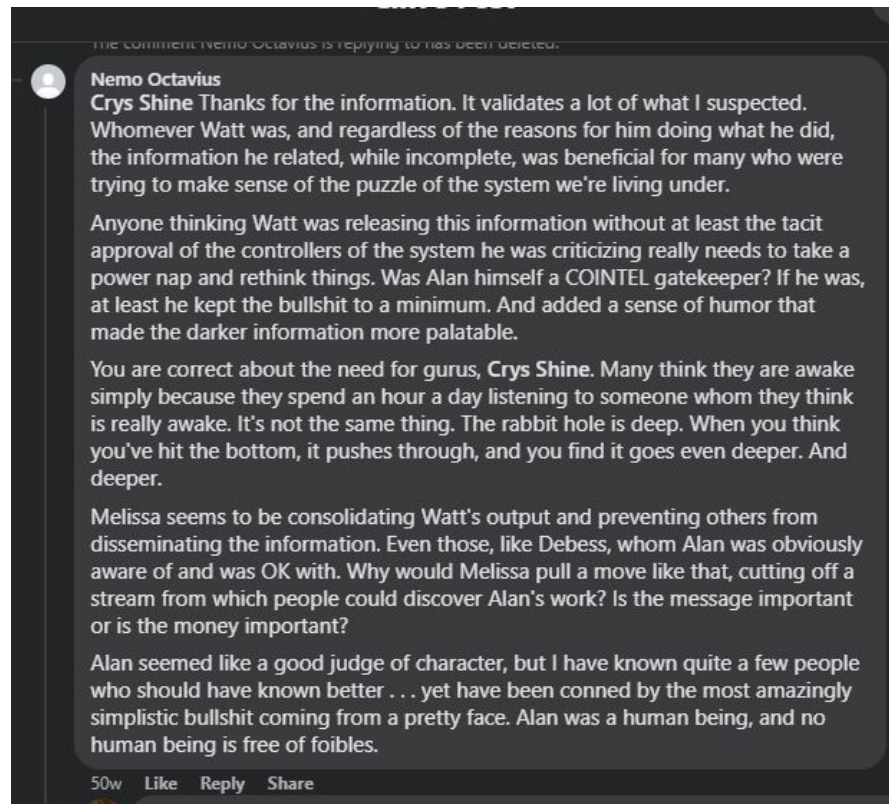

It's funny because both the Zionists and nazis were in bed together, still are when you look at the current events in Ukraine. The nazi and Zionists signed many agreements, cut deals etc.

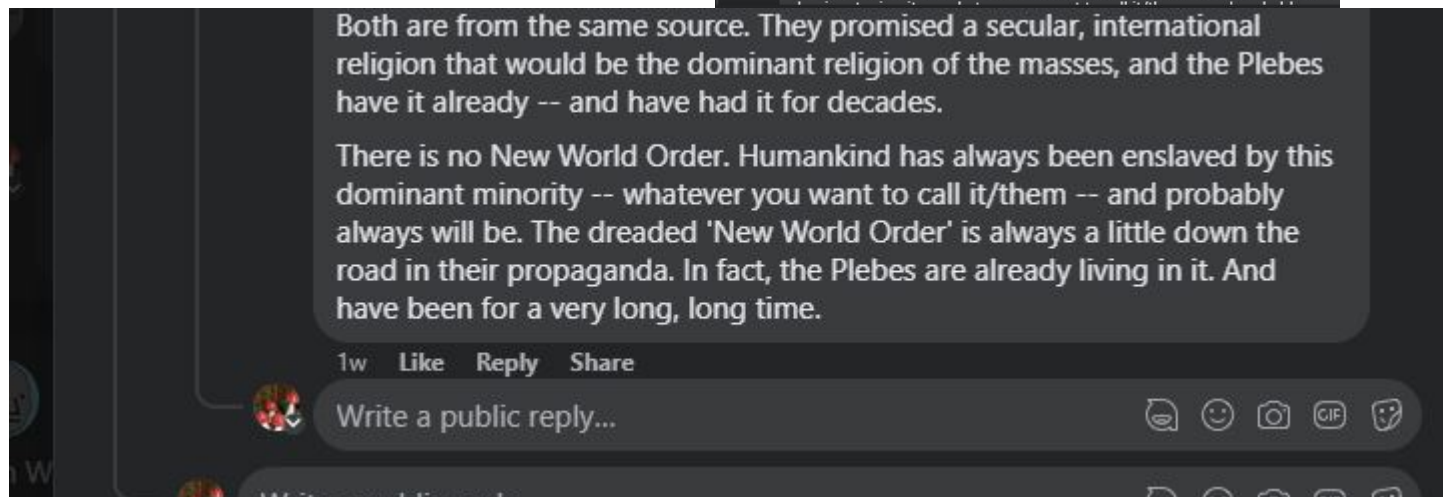

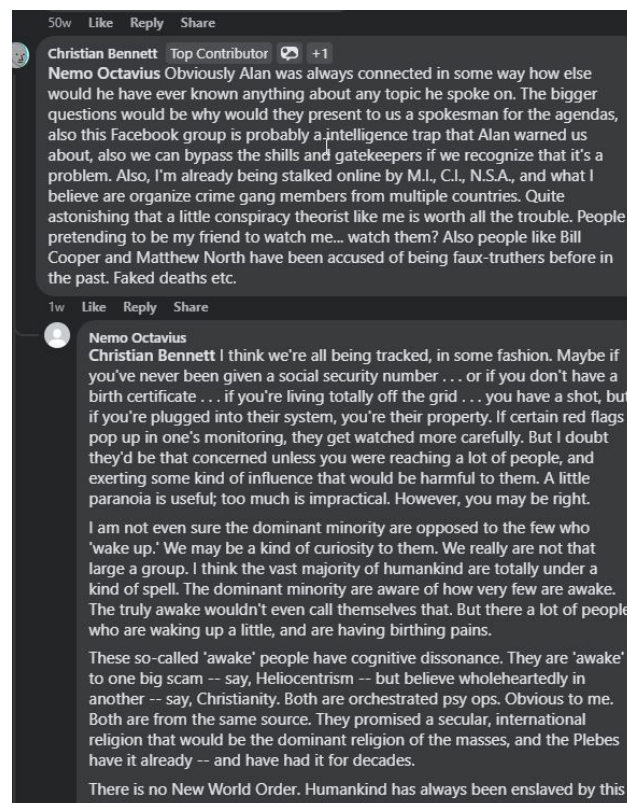

why do you think nobody wants to bring up that specific subject?

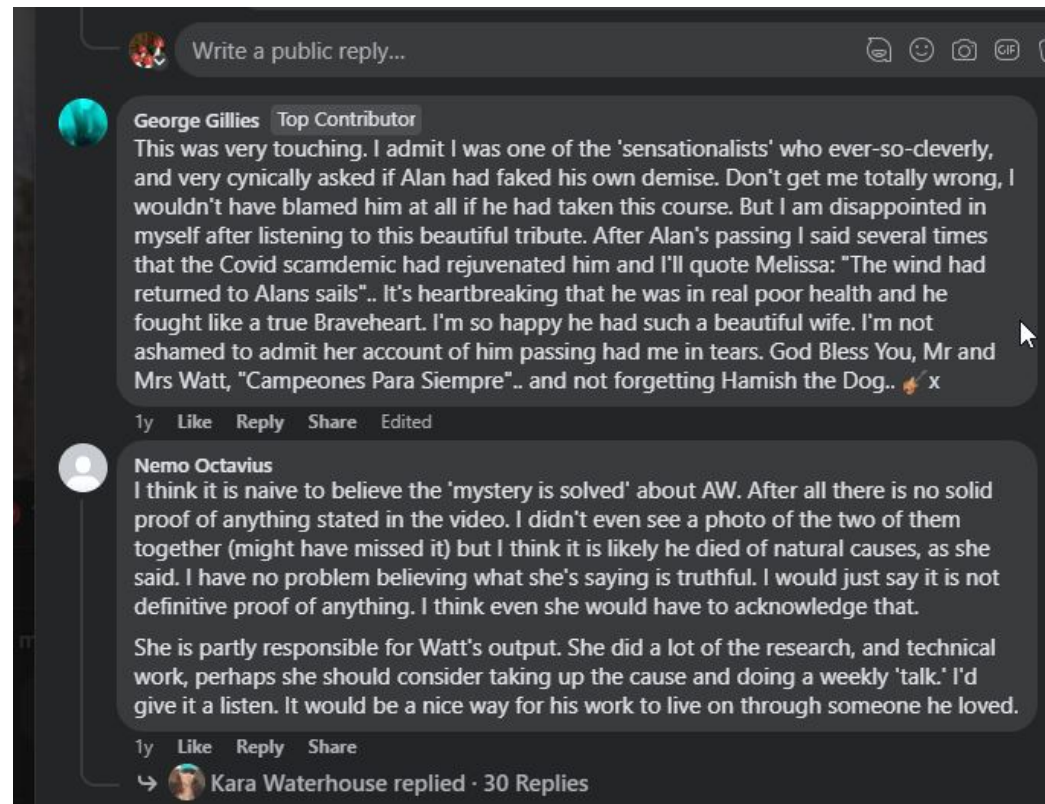

AW didn't want to touch upon it really, he was very reluctant. That was my only gripe with him.

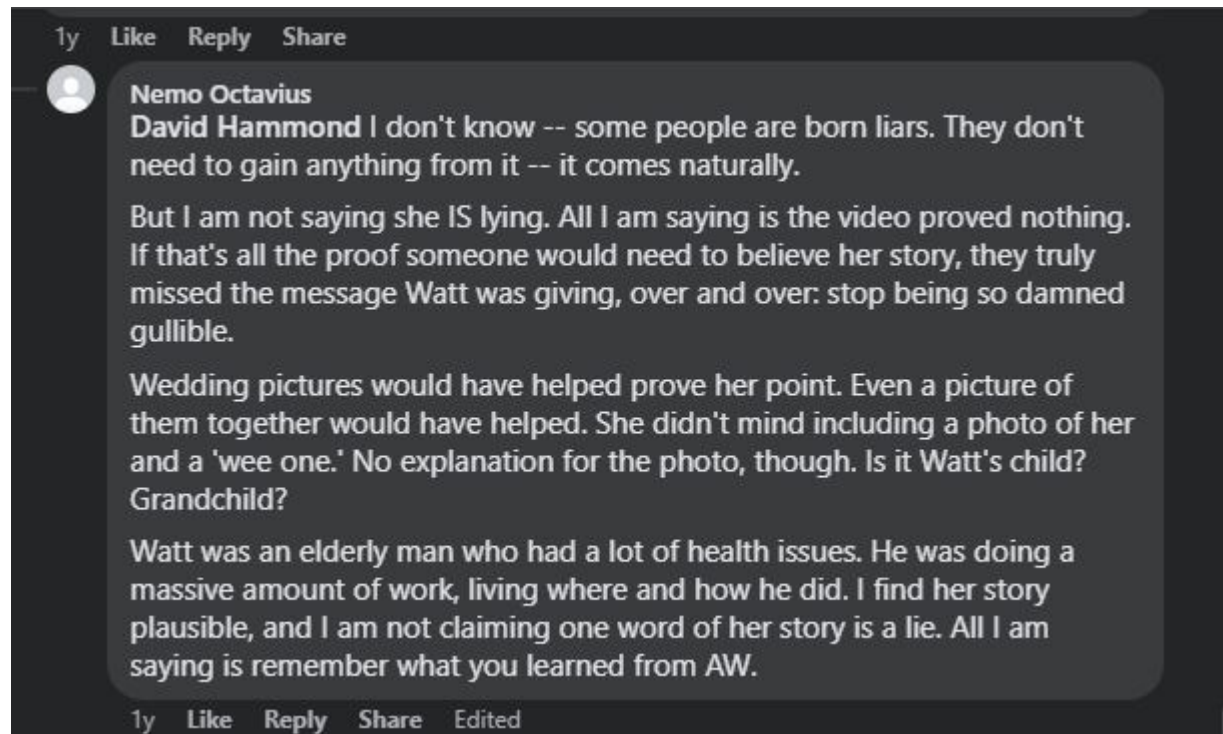

What do you think?

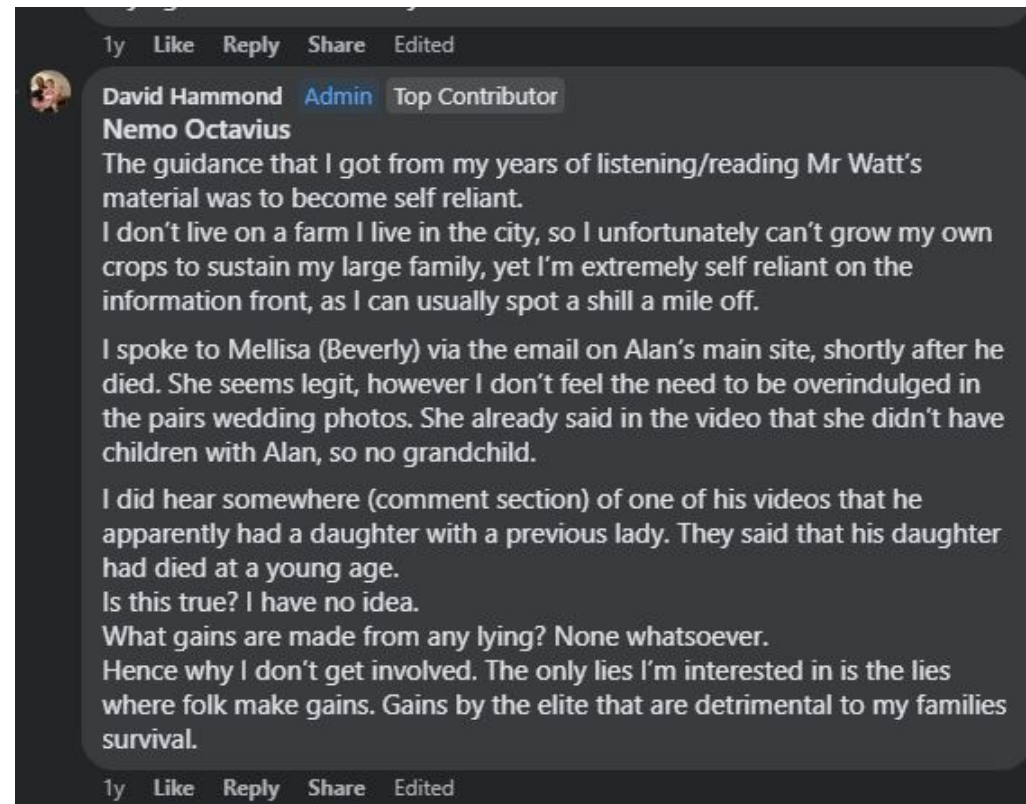

1y Like Reply Share Edited

David Hammond No worries, my friend. I am in the same boat as you. City dweller. I didn't mean to imply you were gullible; I just meant an important part of AW's overall philosophy is to NOT be gullible. Think for yourself. Don't take anything for granted.

The video is interesting, but ultimately proved nothing. Why no photos of them as a couple, at least? That would have established they at least knew each other. I don't know anything about Alan having any children -- he never mentioned any.

And he never mentioned having a wife, either.

I hope the video is the real thing. If so, it makes me feel glad Alan had a wonderful woman in his life -- Melissa seems to be an intelligent and caring human being.

Cheers!

She made the video , that's her business, not mine. I've got far too much going on in my life to be bothered about what people believe, if I worried about it I wouldn't get anything done.

Nemo Octavius "Secret Societies and Psychological Warfare" by Michael A. Hoffman II is a groundbreaking master work into the machinations of the masonic secret societies. Hoffman discusses an almost, if not subliminal, language being used by the Media, Hollywood, and contained in works of fiction, especially science fiction, which he calls "Twilight Language". Hoffman argues that the serial killings, school shootings, mass shootings, bombings, and other acts of terror are being used in an alchemical act which he calls a "Masonic Psychodrama". These violent acts are part of the sick Hegelian synthesis designed to break the will of the people and allow a police state to be erected with little resistance. Its been eleven years since the book was published, apparently Hoffman theories have stood the test of time. Can you say TSA?

Hoffman makes many profound statements that stimulate new ideas and concepts; for example, Hoffman asserts that the cryptocrats want the truth of their crimes to be made public in such a way that it makes them look omnipotent or god-like. The reasons is it demoralizes the people into believing that resistance to the coming Neo-feudalism is futile. Hoffman provides many examples of "twilight language" at work in the following tragedies:

The JFK Assassination - I believe most of the evidence was derived from James Shelby Downard and Hoffman's work on the JFK assassination called "King-Kill 33: On the Occult Aspects of the Assassination of John F. Kennedy" For Example, Dealey Plaza was the site of the first masonic lodge in Texas. The "three tramps" apprehended by the police in the rail yard equates to the three murderers of Hiram Abiff in masonic mythology. Dealey plaza and the other streets form a "trident" and is on the 33 degree line. Hoffman argues that Kennedy was killed in a modern day killing of the king ritual. More about this ritual can be found in James Frazer's "The Golden Kaczynski was framed. Also discussed, is the Oklahoma City Bombing, how the USG had information that a bombing was in the works, but let it happen. The 1993 World Trade Center Bombing is touched on also. Anyone who has looked into this crime knows that the FBI was caught red handed, so I believe that Hoffman is on very firm ground here. Why would the FBI involve itself in these crimes? Hoffman believes the answer is in the increase in budgets, the expansion of the police state, and the decreases in individual rights. Remember the book was released prior to 9/11, before the subject of "false flag" operations gain notoriety in the mind of the public. The evidence of government involvement in terrorism is available to anyone who bothers to look.

Hoffman analyzes the Columbine Massacres in relation to the movie "The Matrix" and covers the serial killings of John Wayne Gacy and Son of Sam killings and more. Hoffman calls these "cereal killings" which sheds new light on the purpose and motives of these crimes.

Hoffman also touches on Jack Parson's involvement in the occult and his attempt to create a Frankenstein like creature during the Trinity atomic bomb test.

Hoffman provides many convincing arguments to support what he labels the "Revelation of the Method", which is a technique used in Psychological warfare where eventually a conspiracy becomes known. As researchers attempt to document and publicize the conspiracy, more and more people are processed into the psychological operation through their efforts thus providing a measure of the success of the operation.

There are several new books recently published about the occult and the use of numerology in the storyline scripts of false flags operations. I would strongly suggest reading "Secret Societies and Psychological Warfare" as an introduction to "twilight language" and the other concepts Hoffman outlines in the book. It is also helpful to study symbolism as a primer to develop "right brain" thinking to offset the "left brain" dominated thinking that is most common in our "scientific age."

Christian Bennett My apologies. Wasn't meant as a personal attack, friend. Your questioning whether he was controlled opposition or not is wise, in my opinion. He could have been. Highly plausible. He could also have been authentic -- someone who was trying to spread the truth as much as he could. That doesn't mean every thing he said or wrote was a fact. Is that possible? He was human, he was bound to make mistakes, just like I am and you are.

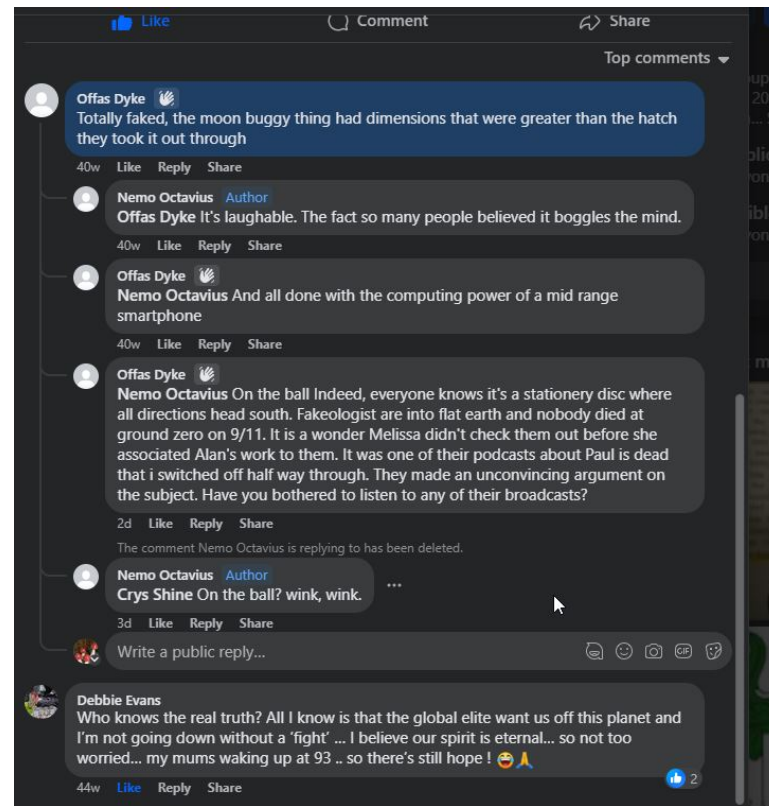

His motivations are debatable. His information needs to be considered as another human being's opinion. I haven't read his books. So I can't consider that material. From that snippet you posted, I agree with him. But what is in the book? The books could be made available to all for free -- if Watt really bit the bullet, what difference, other than monetary, could there be?

Rob Garland I can't think of anyone out there that is in his league, as far as being able to convey this type of information as well as he does. Some come close, but they always throw that fraction of obvious B.S. in their work that gives me pause. Hard to detect any B.S. with Watt, I just wish I could get rid of the nagging feeling there's important pieces of the puzzle missing to his story. It just seems too unlikely he could operate all these international sites with the content he provided for so long without being de- platformed.

Thanks for the report! On my end, I'm being stalked online by people with military AND organized crime family backgrounds. Trying to talk about it with people in real life and they think it's just the N.S.A. just doing it's job. I don't think that's quite the case. 🤔 And also I'm trying to get started with a new email and Youtube channel so maybe I can collect together a band of Alan listeners and other truthers out there. 🔒 Steven Owen

Seeing that you are affiliated with AW's family members it reinforces my overall standpoint, in regards to them "NOT" being suitable at looking after his site... i mean, let's face it, you are their associate, right😬. I'd rather trust AW's judgment over theirs any day of the week.

They've got a fraggle, like (yourself) working alongside them to demonise someone who AW left in charge.

Now, that someone, has done interviews with people who knew AW on a personally level... what has his family done in regards to anything related to AW? 0%.

Well, they obviously have a complete and utter (knucklehead) aiding them... god help them.

Why did you tell me to delete my posts? 😬

People are reading everything on here, so don't swerve the questions😬

I can categorically say that Steven Owen is unknown to Alan's family outside this group. We'd like to tell you that Alan's rightful heirs are his two sisters, and they are suitable to look after his legacy. Who better than his blood relatives. I told you personally some time ago that there were legal proceedings and that in the fullness of time, Alan's family will tell the whole tale, truthfully. We did not want to comment publically before having all legal actions completed in Canada, but we can confirm that it has been established by the courts that Alan's sisters are his joint heirs. No other person has inheritance rights. We will release more information once all legal actions have been concluded.
Please allow us our privacy to conclude what needs to be done.

Hi David. As you and everyone who knows anything about Alan will know, he and his family are very private people. Also, it would be wrong for me to comment on an ongoing court case. However, I can say that transparency can only be judged if you know fully that everything you see is all that there is to be seen. As soon as the case is finalised, we will let people know what the truth is.

David Hammond I posted it on here but then I deleted it and after a few days you messaged me and asked what happened to it so I sent it to you. You're beginning to sound fully jabbed up my boy Offas Dyke why are you being so defensive? I'm merely asking as to why you specifically sent me that picture? I just find it rather odd? Why did you post it on this group? Do you know each other? Don't digress from the question?

David Hammond you asked for it so I sent it to you. Don't you remember? It was only 10 months ago Offas Dyke I know you did. I'm asking as to why you randomly targeted that specific individual? That's all.
